To whom it may concern,

This is to endorse that the following Nalanda Nritya Kala Mahavidyalaya graduates have been part of the Dance teaching faculty of IAID Performing Arts Qatar.

- Amruta Panchal – Indian Classical Dance Instructor from 23 Nov 2015 to 22 Nov 2018
- Devyani Kulkarni – Indian Classical Dance Instructor from 14 Sept 2017 to present
- Radhika Nair – Indian Classical Dance Instructor from 17 Feb 2019 to present

IAID Performing Art Academy Qatar is a novel institute that provides quality training for Dance, Music and Arts. A first of its kind in the Middle East established in 2001, IAID is considered to date to be the Biggest Performing Arts Academy in the region with more than 1,200 students (children & adults) representing over 80 nationalities. IAID is supported with fully equipped dance, music, and art studios at prime and central locations in Qatar and a registered office in London, UK.

We are very pleased with their commendable contributions to IAID's commitment and success in promoting and sharing the rich Indian cultural art forms to the Qatar community.
