UNDERTAKING

This college is bound by the Reservation policy of University of Mumbai and Government of Maharashtra but the admission in this college is done according to the interest of the prospective students.

The intake capacity is often not fully utilised as this course is chosen by rare and serious prospective students who want to study Indian Dance and its allied subjects in-depth and take Dance as a profession. No discrimination is done during admission on the basis of class, caste and sex.

In the given scenario the reserve category prospective students too very rarely choose this profession but if they approach the college officials, this college is definitely bound to give them priority based on the reservation policy.
